2. There is an opening on the Bryan Bennett Library Board. Gary Hahn has been approached and is willing to serve. Request approval of appointment.
3. Public Works sent out bid request for a new contract for residential garbage pick-up over a three- year term. Bid openings were held on Nov 5th with three responses. Our current provider DBS Disposal, Inc. was the low bidder with a price $0.75 higher per month per household. DBS has provided good service and been responsive to our needs. Suggest approval of the proposal from DBS Disposal.
4. Public Works requested pricing on camera services to scope for clogs and damage in the sanitary sewer system, when needed. The proposal is from Haier Plumbing from Okawville, IL for the amount of $15,470.00. This is a budgeted item. Request approval.
5. The Waste Water Treatment Plant is requesting the purchase of a utility vehicle for their use. Public works has sent our bid request and recommends the purchase of a Cushman 4x2 unit from Little Egypt Golf Cars in the amount of $6,991.80. Recommend approval.
6. Gonzalez Companies LLC has performed some engineering work for curb and gutter for replacement work at various locations as well as work on the West Whittaker Street improvement project and is requesting payment of their invoice in the amount of $5,595.00 for the curb and guttering work and $5,450.00 for Whittaker Street. Recommend approval.
7. The Salem Police Department has been approached by CDS Technologies about a sale price for in-car camera systems. The cost of the three cameras needed to complete the coverage of all the squad cars amounts to $19,841.00. This is not a budgeted item for this fiscal year.
8. The Planning Commission has met and reviewed a Special Use Permit for the operation of a food truck by Paul Garrison at 1107 S. Broadway. The Commission recommends approval of the Special Use Permit. He will have tables available for patrons to sit at but will not have any wait staff. Recommend approval.
9. Review and approval of Accounts Payable for the period of October 17 through November 10. Recommend approval.
